

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MARYLAND

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

M E M O R I A L S E R V I C E S

F O R

ROBERT E. AMMONS

HUBERT K. ARNOLD

W. CARROLL BEATTY

JOSEPH A. FINLAYSON, JR.

JESSIE LEE HALL

LORRAINE O'SULLIVAN

Courtroom 300M

County Courthouse

Upper Marlboro, Maryland 20772

Thursday, November 19, 1992

DEBRANNE SWEAT

OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

COMMEMORATIVE TRIBUTES

1

2

3

ROBERT E. AMMONS

Richard Basile

4

5

HUBERT K. ARNOLD

George A. Wilkinson

6

7

W. CARROLL BEATTY

Paul M. Nussbaum

8

9

JOSEPH A. FINLAYSON, JR.,

Hasssan A. El-Amin

10

11

JESSIE LEE HALL

John W. Mitchell

12

13

LORRAINE O'SULLIVAN

Vincent J. Femia

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

P R O C E E D I N G S

1
2 JUDGE McCULLOUGH: In November of every year, the 3 Bar Association provides for the Memorial Service for 4 members who have passed from the Bar in the preceding year.
5 Today we will pay tribute to, and speaking on behalf of 6 Robert E. Ammons, Mr. Basil. Hubert K. Arnold, George 7 Wilkinson. W. Carroll Beatty, Paul M. Nussbaum. Joseph A.
8 Finlayson, Jr., Hassan A. El-Amin. Jessie Lee Hall, John 9 W. Mitchell. Lorraine O'Sullivan, Judge Vincent Femia.

10 It's my pleasure now to introduce you to the 11 President of the Prince George's County Bar Association, 12 Patrice E. Lewis for some opening remarks.

13 JUDGE LEWIS: Judge McCullough and members of 14 the Circuit Court, my colleagues, my friends, we're here 15 today and I am here before you today in my capacity as 16 President of the Bar Association. We are here to file a 17 report of the Memorial Committee. We are a voluntary Bar 18 Association with some 1100 members.

19 Mr. DePaul, if you would come forward and file 20 the report with me.

21 MR. DePAUL: Judge McCullough, certainly it is 22 good to see you back, Your Honors, Judge Lewis, members of 23 the bar and families and friends. It is a sad occasion yet 24 it is one we do with honor, because we are here to honor 25 those members or colleagues who have passed on. We ask

1 that each one be recognized, and we picked a speaker who is 2 approved by the family and the Bar to tell us a little bit 3 about the lawyer who was no longer with us.

4 We first call upon Richard Basil to tell us about 5 Robert Ammons. Mr. Basil will you approach please.

6 MR. BASIL: Good afternoon, Members of the 7 Circuit Court and Members of the District Court, Members of 8 the Bar and ladies and gentlemen. I am here to speak about 9 Robert Ammons, and I was associated with Bob since 1983 up 10 until the time of his death, which was December the 9th of 11 1991.

12 By way of biographical background, Bob was born
13 in 1933 in Aura, Illinois. He dropped out of high school, 14 and when he dropped out of high school he entered the armed 15 services. He fought in Korea, and while a member of the 16 armed forces, a member of the Army, he attained his GED.
17 After obtaining his GED he entered the University of 18 Baltimore in 1957, and obtained an AA Degree. Two years
19 later or three years after that, he was awarded a Bachelor 20 of Law Degree at Southern University of Baltimore.

21 During that period of time he worked his way 22 through law school, and became a Chief Claims Adjustor for 23 State Farm Insurance in Baltimore and obtained a lot of 24 insurance background, which he later used as a personal 25 injury attorney. And with that background, the first job

1 that he had out of law school was with a law firm by the 2 name of Miller, Couch and Blackwell where he was an 3 associate for a number of years.

4 After several years at Miller, Couch and 5 Blackwell he went on to join a firm known as Fisher, 6 Walcheck and Ammons. Fisher, Walcheck and Ammons is where 7 he stayed for several more years. In the early '70's, he 8 entered private practice as a sole practitioner, broke away
9 and started his own practice, and as many now know he was a 10 specialist in landlord tenant law, and also in personal 11 injury law.

12 But having said that, I think most people are 13 aware of what his background was, and what he did as a 14 lawyer. My recollections of him are that he was just a lot 15 of fun and a lot of laughs, and that's what we did for the 16 seven or eight years that we were associated.

17 I'll tell you that I am sure that Bob, after he 18 went out into private practice and became a practitioner, 19 and after he attained all of the various distinguishes he 20 attained, it was in 1978 that he obtained what he 21 considered to be the high point of his professional and 22 personal life, and that is that he bought a brand new 1979 23 Rolls Royce, for which he became renowned. I remember at 24 the time he had settled a large personal injury case, and 25 obtained a large fee as a result of that settlement, and

1 that afternoon he went down and bought the Rolls Royce 2 unbeknownst to his wife.

3 That afternoon the story has it that he was 4 driving the Rolls Royce through the neighborhood and his 5 wife didn't see him in the car, but saw the car and admired 6 it and was wondering who's car that was, and you can 7 imagine her shock when she came home that evening and saw 8 it parked in her driveway.

9 And shortly thereafter, as I was talking to his 10 son this afternoon, I learned that he gave the Rolls Royce 11 to his son to use to take his driver's examination, and his 12 son after passing it, and being as nervous as he was, was 13 especially nervous when his father gave him the keys and 14 said goodbye, you have to drive the car home.

15 I recall a few years later in 1983 when I joined 16 his firm, normally most of your friends when you leave -- I 17 was in the State's Attorney's office at the time, and when 18 you leave government service and you are joining a firm or 19 change firms they ask you what are you going to do, what 20 are you going to practice, what is your job, and the only 21 thing I was ever asked was, would I get a Rolls Royce or 22 when was my turn to drive the car or things associated with 23 that car. So I can never outlive the car or overshadow 24 that car's importance.

25 But, I would say in addition to that, Bob was

1 known as being an expert golfer, and he was almost on a
2 professional level. I think he had won several Bar
3 tournaments and also played in several Master's Pro-Am 4 tournaments, and had golfed with people in Augusta, 5 Georgia. He was quite a fine golfer for those here who had 6 ever played with him or seen him play.

7 I suppose, having said all of these things, I
8 guess what strikes me the most about Bob were two things.
9 And that is one, he cared more about his clients than 10 anybody I have ever known, and I have never seen a client 11 which cared more about Bob Ammons. The loyalty I saw his 12 clients express for him was something I have never seen 13 with any other attorney. He loved them, and they loved 14 him, and in these days when we have formalized pro bono 15 programs, I know that back in that time, Bob did a great 16 deal of work where he represented people that he knew could 17 never, ever afford to pay him, but for whom he had sympathy 18 or felt sorry, and who needed an attorney.

19 And I'm sure that if you were to total the number 20 of hours that he put in working for these types of people, 21 it would be very substantial.

22 The second quality that I would like to mention 23 about Bob that I will always remember, is what he did for 24 other members of the Bar, which probably nobody else here
25 knows about, and in closing I would just like to recount

1 two incidents to illustrate the type of person that he was,
2 because to my knowledge I think only myself, and one or two 3 other people know about these incidents, but there was one
4 incident where a large, very large client came to Bob. It
5 was not Bob's client. It was another attorney's client, 6 and this was a client that came to Bob and said, we're 7 dissatisfied with our attorney, we want to fire him and we 8 want to hire you, and having taken this client in would 9 have meant a very substantial fee on a monthly basis.
10 Every move. This was one of the biggest types of clients 11 in this area of law that you could have.

12 And Bob's reaction to this client's overtures to 13 him was because he knew that -- he knew the attorney that 14 that client had retained at that time, and he knew that 15 these clients leaving that attorney would render that 16 attorney for lack of a better term, financially hurting, he 17 told that client and convinced that client that there was 18 nothing wrong with that attorney, that that attorney was 19 the best attorney that client could have, and that that 20 attorney ought to go -- that client ought to go back to 21 that attorney and try to iron out the problems that that 22 client was having with the attorney.

23 And then when the client left the office, Bob got 24 on the phone to the attorney, and told that attorney that 25 he was having some problems with the client, and if he

1 wanted to retain that client he ought to try to iron those 2 problems out. That attorney was very, very grateful to 3 Bob, and those problems were ironed out. To this day that 4 attorney still represents that large client.

5 And the second incident I would relate is that 6 one day six or seven years ago, Bob and I were sitting in 7 the chambers of a member of the bench, and we were talking 8 about just things in general, and this particular member of 9 the bench mentioned that an attorney member of the Bar who 10 was well-known, who had been suspended under such 11 circumstances that he probably would never practice law 12 again, that this particular attorney had fallen on very, 13 very hard times. And that this particular attorney was in 14 fact going to be evicted within the next day or two, 15 because he didn't even have the money to pay his rent.

16 Bob, upon hearing that, as the rest of us, he knew 17 this attorney, but didn't know him that well, but he knew 18 him as a member or former member of the Bar. He felt very 19 sorry for him, and Bob took his check back out of his 20 pocket, and wrote a very substantial check for that 21 attorney's rent and passed it on, and at least for that 22 time saved that attorney from being evicted from his 23 apartment, and when I think about Bob Ammons, these are 24 things that I think about with respect to him.

25 And I think that the caring that he showed and

1 the generosity he showed for the fellow members of the Bar 2 and for his clients is something that is very exemplary and 3 I hope in my lifetime that I could come half as close to 4 that as he did, and I would hope that other members could 5 exhibit the same sort of conduct and caring and sympathy.

6 Thank you.

7 MR. DePAUL: Next, Your Honor, we next ask George 8 L. Wilkinson to tell about Hubert K. Arnold.

9 MR. WILKINSON: Judge McCullough, and Members of 10 the Bench, fellow attorneys, family of the deceased
11 members of the Bar, I have been asked to talk about Hubert 12 Arnold.

13 Hubert Kernard Arnold was born on May 9th, 1914
14 in Baltimore, Maryland. Hubert was named Hubert after his 15 Dad who was a lineman type operator, and was named Kenard 16 simply because his mother liked that name and as a result his 17 family and friends all called him Ken. He was about a year 18 old when Hubert moved to North Carolina with his dad, who 19 took a job at the time in Raleigh, North Carolina, and 20 stayed there until his teenage years when he returned to 21 this area with his family, and attended McKinley Tech High 22 School.

23 From there, he went to the University of Maryland
24 where he got his Bachelor of Art's Degree in Business 25 Administration. He then entered into the Second World War,

1 and was stationed for three out of the four years in the 2 Pacific, where he served with the 15th Bomb Wing. His 3 experience in the Pacific was the beginning of his concern 4 with things that dealt with the orient, in particular with 5 Japanese. He just became fascinated with the Japanese and 6 their culture.

7 Hubert began his law studies at Georgetown
8 University after spending two years there, and transferred 9 to Duke University where he completed his law studies. He 10 then passed both the Maryland and the New York Bar, and 11 began his practice on Wall Street with a large New York 12 firm.

13 After a year in New York he decided that was not 14 for him, returned to this area, and began a law practice in 15 Hyattsville under the name of Lawyers Title Company of 16 Prince George's County, because of nature of his title
17 work, Hubert Kenard Arnold became very active in Prince 18 George's County Board of Realtors and was honored by that 19 organization as Vice President Emeritus.

20 Those of you who know Hubert know that he had 21 very few bad words about anybody, but it's rather 22 interesting how his vocabulary became colored by his 23 experiences. He had a Bull Dog that had been given to him
24 and he named his boat the Bull Dog, and, being in title 25 work, his favorite expression for an attorney that he just

1 had absolutely no -- represented the epitome of frustration
2 with, was my gosh, he doesn't know the difference between a 3 deed and a Bull Dog, and that was the worst thing that 4 Hubert could ever say about somebody that didn't know the 5 difference between a deed and a Bull Dog.

6 I first came to know Hubert in '67 when I went out
7 on my own, and rented two rooms from Hubert in the building
8 next door to him, and as a result of our close proximity, 9 both since his office was next door as well as our landlord 10 tenant relationship, I came to know him quite well, and 11 came to know him in ways that were different than just 12 being an attorney, and those are the things that I would 13 like you to know about today, because I think many of you 14 don't know these aspects of Humbert Arnold.

15 Hubert was a very devoted son. He never 16 married, took care of his mother until she died in 1981.
17 He never got over his love of flying, and that was a result 18 of his years in the World War II, and he had both his 19 commercial and private pilots license, and frequently took 20 his mother with him on a small one engine plane, and just 21 took her around over the Chesapeake flying out of Easton.
22 In addition to that he was a licensed glider pilot. He not 23 only flew the skies.

24 But as I mentioned earlier, he really enjoyed the 25 water. He had two boats, and he had a boat on the western

1 shore that was called the Bull Dog. It was a motor boat 2 and he had a boat on the eastern shore that was a very 3 large sail boat called the Dudley after his dad. When I 4 said large, I'm talking about a heavy wooden boat built in 5 South America, almost 40 feet long.

6 Those of you who are sailors know, but it had 7 both a main mast and mizzen mast, and he sailed that rascal
8 alone many times on the Cheasapeake when he had no one else
9 to crew for him. He was a motorcyclist, riding long 10 distances, throughout the country side. He was a 50 year 11 member of the Chillum Masonic Temple, and he was, above all 12 things, a continuous scholar.

13 Following his retirement in the '70's, Hubert 14 returned to the University of Maryland where he took and 15 excelled in such diverse subjects as the Japanese language
16 and anthropology. His study of the Japanese internment 17 during World War II by the United States Government, which 18 resulted in a very lengthy paper being submitted. One of 19 Bert's papers I'm told were submitted for an undergraduate 20 subject matter.

21 I remember spending hours with him, talking about 22 the implications of that constitutional law involvement of 23 the internment of these Japanese citizens in the United 24 States. In 1982, Hubert's instructors from the Eastern 25 Shore, Bill Newmann asked Hubert if he would fly and

1 airplane that Bill Newmann had just sold to someone out in 2 Witchita, Kansas. Hubert flew it out there, and during the 3 intervening time between the Second World War and the time 4 of this flight, Hubert had maintained contact with several 5 members of his organization, his bomber wing and while he 6 was in Wichita he contacted them, and one of those 7 individuals was a fellow by the name of Ross Patrick who 8 lost his life as a test pilot for Boeing.

9 Ross Patrick had a widow and a couple of children
10 that Hubert knew, and the widow called Hubert, and things 11 being what they were, Hubert at age 69 married or got 12 married to Marjorie Rose. The following year, Hubert sold 13 his home here in Maryland, transferred his University of 14 Maryland credits to Whichita State University where he got 15 his Master's Degree in Anthropology and his Master's thesis 16 was on Japanese government and civilian procedures in 17 caring for the aging citizen.

18 During the last three years of his life, Hubert
19 Arnold was quite ill. He never let that illness stop him 20 in his intellectual curiosity or dissuade him from 21 undertaking any type of new activity. He and Marjorie 22 traveled overseas. They spent a considerable time in Egypt
23 and elsewhere. He became very interested in Sedgewick 24 County which is located in Wichita and expended a great 25 deal of his time in upgrading and updating there. In fact

1 there's a memorial to him, which pays tribute to him and 2 his dedication and vitality that he brought to that 3 institution.

4 This year, on June the 8th of 1992, Hubert Arnold
5 succumbed to Cancer. I think the Prince George's County 6 Bar Association is poor for having lost him, but his 7 friends both in and out of the law profession are very much 8 richer for having known Hubert Arnold and having shared 9 some of our life with him.

10 Thank you.

11 MR. DePAUL: We would next ask Mr. Nussbaum if he 12 would speak for W. Carroll Beatty.

13 MR. NUSSBAUM: It is somewhat ironic that the 14 person I am eulogizing had his offices right next door to 15 the offices of who Mr. Wilkinson eulogized.

16 Your Honors, Mrs. Beatty, Carroll Beatty was my 17 mentor, my role model and my friend. He died on October 2, 18 1992 at the age of 84. He was the devoted and loving 19 husband of Thelma Beatty, who is with us this afternoon.
20 His distinguished and prolific career touched upon almost 21 every aspect and hallmark of Prince George's County. His 22 vitae is so lengthy, I would undoubtedly consume all 23 afternoon if I were to read off his many activities or the 24 many honors that were bestowed upon him during a career 25 that started in the 20's, when he graduated from National

1 University Law School, and that before he went to Strayer
2 College in Washington D. C., and came to Hyattsville, 3 Maryland practicing law in 1931.

4 I will, however, share with you some of the 5 highlights of Carroll's life and dedication and devotion to 6 the practice of the law in general, and to the citizenry of 7 Prince George's County in particular.

8 He was President of the Prince George's County Bar 9 Association, 1953-54. He was a Vice President of the 10 Maryland State bar Association, 1954-1955. He was City
11 Clerk for the City of Hyattsville for 18 years, and then 12 for almost 20 years, the City of Hyattsville Town Attorney.
13 He was the president of the Prince George's County Chamber 14 of Commerce. He was a Director of the Prince George's 15 County General Hospital for many years, and he was a 16 Director and Member of the Executive Committee of what was 17 at one time called Suburban Trust, and before that Prince
18 George's Bank. He was a member of the Lion's Club for 50 19 years, and went from international governor to 20 international counselor.

21 He was a member of the Masonic Lodge for over 22 five years in Hyattsville, and undoubtedly his most urgent 23 calling and his greatest dedication next to his wife, were 24 in the many, many positions that he held in the Methodist 25 Church throughout his distinguished career. He was a

1 trustee. He was on the Board of Governors of Westly 2 Theological Seminary. He was the chairman of the 3 Methodist Union for many, many years.

4 I first got to know Carroll back in the very,
5 very early 50's, when I was doing title work right near 6 this courthouse, old courthouse, and Mr. Beatty would come 7 into the record room frequently to drop off mortgages or 8 releases that needed to be recorded. Over the years I got 9 to admire him. He was someone who always would give a 10 young law student and later on a young lawyer all of the 11 time that one would needs to get some interest, some 12 insight into what was necessary to know about the law.
13 When Carroll became -- when Carroll became a member of the 14 Board of Education of Prince George's in May 1959, that day 15 I was appointed an attorney to the Boared of Education, and 16 I worked with Carroll for the 11 years he was a member of 17 the Board of education, ten years of which he was the 18 Board's chairman.

19 No question but that during that period of time I 20 got to know him even better. I can tell you countless 21 Beattyisms (sic) that are personal and private, but I'm 22 sure he would have no objection whatsoever if I were to 23 share them with you.

24 One that is really not a major event but I
25 noticed that no one around seems to have ever mentioned it,

1 and I will let the secret out of the bag right now, Mr.
2 Beatty was proficient at shorthand, and I can tell you that 3 when at board meetings, when at other occasions, lawyers
4 would for the citizenry, would make comments to the board
5 or comments in the courtroom, and Mr. Beatty would be there 6 scribbling in shorthand, and a day later at a meeting, in 7 an Executive Session of the Board, a board member will say 8 didn't so and so say such and such, and Carroll went to his 9 shorthand and said, no, this is what he said.

10 So that was a talent for which he was to be 11 honored. My favorite Beatty story, however, is probably 12 either the first or second year of my term as a Board 13 attorney, and Carroll lived six blocks from where we lived.
14 The phone rang one evening. Mr. Beatty wanted to know if 15 he could come over my house and visit with me. Needless to 16 say I was scared to death. I thought this was the message 17 of you are threw. I said please come over. He says, are 18 you sure you had dinner. I said yes, sir. He said are you 19 sure I won't be bothering you. Absolutely. Are you sure, 20 I won't be intruding upon you. I said, please come, and I
21 couldn't wait for him to come.

22 Well, within maybe another five or six minutes 23 the doorbell rang. Obviously I stood right at the door and 24 opened up the door, and there was Mr. Beatty with a law 25 book in his hand. He said, can I come in. I said sure.

1 After he apologized once again for disturbing my evening
2 and my wife's evening, I said to him, please come in the 3 living room and sit down. He said no, I'll just talk to 4 you right there in hallway, and it won't take that long. I
5 said, please, Mr. Beatty come in my living room and sit 6 down.

7 He then came into the living room, and proceeded
8 to tell me that earlier that morning I was asked a question 9 at a board meeting, and the irony is that the issue then is 10 still very much an issue today, that related to the same
11 identical piece of property, but in any event, Mr. Beatty 12 reminded me, that that morning I was asked a question that 13 related to the duty of lateral support, and admittedly I 14 gave a quick answer, which I based upon what I thought was 15 common sense. Carroll who always referred to me as Mr.
16 Lawyer when he was chairman, said thank you Mr. Lawyer.
17 Nothing was said until that evening. He then opened up the 18 Maryland reports to a case, which clearly held that what I 19 said was totally opposite of what the holdings were of that 20 Court of Appeals.

21 He did it in such a kind manner that it taught me 22 two lessons I guess that have gone with me for the rest of 23 my life. First, for heaven sake don't ever give legal 24 advice by shooting from the hip, admit you don't know it, 25 if you don't know it. Number two, there can be no rebuke

1 more gentle than the one I received from Carroll Beatty 2 that day.

3 For those of you who were privileged to know
4 Carroll, all I can say is we were indeed privileged.

5 I thank you.

6 MR. DePAUL: Your Honor we would next ask Hassan
7 El-Amin to tell us about the late Joseph A. Finlayson, Jr.,

8 MR. EL-AMIN: Distinguished members of the 9 bench, members of the Bar, the family, friends of Joseph 10 Finlayson, Jr., it will be only a couple of weeks from now, 11 December 2nd, when a year shall have passed since Joseph 12 Finlayson, Jr., was snatched from our midst at a relatively 13 young age of 53. Joe came to us from upstate New York and 14 one of the unique things about Joe was that he had a 15 professional career before his second professional career 16 as an attorney.

17 Joe Finlayson was a very smart, brilliant
18 individual. He was a patent attorney for Western Electric 19 in the early 60's. He attended the University of Baltimore 20 Law School and graduated and he became affiliated with the 21 patent law section of Western Electric. As an attorney Joe 22 was confident. He was an accomplished, and he was 23 inventive. The confidence perhaps came from knowing and 24 having a firm grasp of the fundamental principles of the 25 law, such that even if he didn't know the case side on a

1 given time, he understood the principles which would govern
2 whatever the holding would be in a specific case.

3 He was accomplished because he had such a wide 4 variety of clients and expertise in such a wide variety of 5 fields. I first met him in about 1976. He lived in the 6 community where I lived, a place called Old Town Village, 7 and he was at the time the staff attorney for the 8 development next door, Pickwick, and shortly after meeting
9 him I began to have an interest in law school and Joe sort 10 of took me on as a clerk or a research fellow, and he had 11 me doing some research for him on a number of occasions.

12 I used to look at the variety of people that used 13 to come to Joe; fat people, corporate types, black people, 14 white people, country people, city people, and his waiting 15 room then, and his waiting room in 1991 when he passed away 16 used to look like a veritable United Nations. He would 17 come in from Court tired at 5:30 in the afternoon and there 18 would be five, six, seven people sometimes with babies and 19 kids waiting to see Mr. Finlayson, and he would handle 20 them in a manner that I never learned to handle a client, 21 efficiently and effectively and they go out smiling, but 22 they never took more than 15, 20 minutes.

23 Now, when I say Joe was inventive, it wasn't just 24 because he dealt with patent law, and he was around 25 inventors all of the time. He ran an add in these local

1 telephone books, and got a lot of business through 2 advertising as a patent attorney, and many people came to 3 him with dreams, with their schemes, outlying what they 4 wanted to do, and he was one of the few members of the Bar, 5 local Bar who ran both a general practice, and was 6 registered with the U. Patent and Trade office as a patent 7 attorney.

8 He once assigned me to a case and it was a 9 difficult case. This was a criminal case in which the 10 defendant had allegedly or at least the trial Court had 11 found -- and this was an appellate case, had used moneys 12 fraudulently to get the Department of HEW money for 13 educational grants that was for some phantom students, and 14 his client had been found guilty at trial, and he wanted me 15 to research the key issues which would have lead to 16 overturning that verdict, and I went to the library.

17 I mean I went to GW. I went up here to Upper 18 Marlboro, I went up Shepardizing or whatever, and I
19 couldn't find three paragraphs of law to support our case, 20 our case, the client's case. It just kept going against 21 me. And, Joe would consult with me every week or about 22 three or four weeks he said, what have you got. I said, 23 Joe I just don't have anything.

24 He said, you have got to find something. I know
25 it's there. You have got to find something. You can do

1 better. He was a hard task master sometime. So, I did
2 what I could. I put together a couple of pages, and Joe 3 said, well, you can do a brief for me. I said, well, I
4 don't know. I just don't think I have enough to brief. So 5 he said, well what -- what is the problem.

6 I said well, I just don't have enough support in 7 the case to write a brief on. He says, well, you write 8 what you think should happen, and then you use what you 9 found in the cases to support what you think. Don't go on 10 trying to put something together from existing law. 2You 11 make the law, and then you make the law fit your argument.

12 Well, after a couple of stabs at it, I gave the 13 brief to Joe or the draft brief. He said this will never 14 work. In about two weeks the deadline came, and you know 15 you had to go to the printers and get the brief all printed 16 up, and Joe handed me the brief that he had finished. It 17 was brilliant. I said, how did you get that out of what I 18 gave you. He said, well, that's the difference between a 19 lawyer and a law clerk. Well, I thought Joe had done a 20 tremendous job, and I told him that, and about a month
21 later, I said, well, how are things going on the brief. I 22 said you did such a tremendous job on that brief.

23 He said, yes, but have you seen the opposition to 24 the brief, and when I saw it, it had knocked all of our 25 arguments out, and then came in Joe's sense of humor

1 because I said, well, Joe this brief by the U.S. Attorney
2 is just knocking you out. He said, yes, I know it's pretty 3 good, and our's was pretty good. I thought it was nice 4 until I saw that one.

5 I said well, what have you told your client. He 6 said, I told my client he better put away those feminine 7 ways, because where he's going they will not stand for it 8 there, but we have done our best.

9 Joe would take a case -- if a person came to him
10 for an unemployment case, he would take that. If a person 11 came to him with a patent case, he would take that. If a 12 person came to him with a zoning case, he would take that.
13 Not only would he take it, but by the time the hearing came 14 around he would be up to speed and know the law and 15 oftentimes, more often than not, get his client good 16 results.

17 As a person, Joe was generous, generous in his 18 structures, his fee structure to clients. He would take 19 them for, you know, a hundred dollars down, and 50 dollars
20 a month, and oftentimes his account receivables -- one time 21 I looked at his accounts receivables, and there were two 22 huge stacks of papers, and they were so big, it was hard to 23 convert them to cash.

24 So he was generous with his time. He was 25 generous with his family. He had kids going to school and

1 many, many times I have seen envelopes there in the morning
2 for the various children, envelopes with checks in them
3 ostensibly, and at the end of the day they are gone. Joe 4 was a very gracious person. When I say gracious, I mean 5 fun to be with, polite, smiling, telling good jokes, just a 6 person who's manners were impeccable, who had a very high 7 expectation of himself, and very high expectation of 8 others, but lived up to those expectations.

9 He was also a very competitive person. He loved 10 to do battle in the courtroom, and he loved to do battle on 11 the golf course. If any of you went to Joe's wake, you 12 would have seen a driving wood, a driver in his casket, 13 and a picture of Joe on the golf course above his casket.
14 Joe was an insatiable golfer. He taught me the game or he 15 taught me the etiquette of the game, but my game is a lot 16 better than Joe's was, but he taught me. It was the 17 etiquette of the game that Joe loved. The marking of --the 18 standing at attention while the other person hits the ball, 19 the polite way you let people play who are faster.

20 He loved the aesthetic of the game, the 21 beautiful arc of the ball going towards the green or a putt 22 that was about to go in. The geometry of the game he 23 loved, and I golf almost every weekend in the foursome he 24 initiated.

25 He initiated a lot of things, and one of the last

1 things Joe said to me almost, but not quite a year ago, was 2 boy, I hope I didn't lose my spot in the foursome. Well, 3 he really hasn't, because each day we go out, maybe three 4 or four times during a given March, the players that I play
5 with, members of the country club, and on whose activities 6 board he served, and also on the golf committee and 7 contributing to the structure of the golf down there, as 8 well as the competition. Each day they remembered Joe 9 there over three or four times in three or four different 10 ways. So, there is a piece of Joe in all of us who knew 11 him, who worked with him, and those pieces are pieces of 12 class.

13 Joe Finlayson, Jr., was a classy person. He is 14 remembered. He's missed, sorely missed. He's loved, and 15 most importantly, he lives on in each of us.

16 MR. DePAUL: Your Honors, we now call upon John 17 Mitchell to tell us about the late Jessie Lee Hall.

18 MR. MITCHELL: May it please the Court, this 19 memorial is to Mr. Jessie Lee Hall who died just a few days
20 before October the 11th, 1992, and in fact that was just a 21 few days short of his 89th birthday, because he was born on 22 October the 11th, 1903 in Calvert County, Maryland. He was 23 a member of a large family that had been residents of 24 Southern Maryland for many years, and I think his family 25 consisted of 11 children.

1 Mr. Hall attended Charlotte Hall School, and he 2 graduated from that high school I think with honors, and he 3 one a scholarship to St. John's College at Annapolis. Now, 4 he attended St. John's, but had to leave because his father 5 died, and he went home to help to take care and to rear his 6 brothers and sisters.

7 In the early 1920's he joined the Metropolitan 8 Police Force for the District of Columbia, and while he was 9 working there he attended law school at Southeastern 10 University, and from there he obtained a law degree, while 11 after about 13 years on the police force he retired, and 12 then he devoted his entire time to the practice of law, 13 keeping an office in Northwest, Washington, from the early 14 -- this would be the 30's until the late '70's or early 15 '80's, when he finally retired.

16 He had an extensive practice, which was a civil 17 practice. I'm not sure he ever was involved in a criminal 18 case. At least to my knowledge he never was, and he did 19 have a large practice in Mitchelville which is about ten 20 miles north of here for those who are illiterate, and don't 21 know where Mitchelville is.

22 Mr. Hall was active in the -- one of founders of 23 the Prince George's Game and Fish Association, which he, I
24 think was involved with for over 50 years, and I would say 25 he traveled to various parts of the country on hunting

1 expeditions with his friends and so forth, and he was 2 active as a trustee of the Methodist Church in 3 Mitchelville.

4 He is survived by his wife, former Dorothy Hall,
5 who I think has moved to North Carolina with her daughter,
6 a daughter who's name was Diane Ward, and two sons, David 7 Hall and Dale Hall, none of whom live in the area at the 8 present time. I have had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Hall
9 somewhat, because we both lived in Mitchelville for awhile, 10 and I can't think of anyone who enjoyed the affection of 11 his neighbors and people that he knew and came in contact
12 with more than he did. He was highly regarded, very well 13 liked, and that was manifested by an extensive practice 14 which he carried on for a number of years, even after he 15 retired.

16 Thank you.

17 MR. DePAUL: Thank you, Mr. Mitchell. Your 18 Honors, we would next call upon the Honorable Vincent J.
19 Femia to tell us about the late Lorraine O'Sullivan.

20 JUDGE FEMIA: Judge McCullough, Madam President, 21 Mr. Chairman, colleagues, and friends, a tragedy struck on 22 August the 11th, 1992, at 7:18 p.m. Lorraine Nancy
23 O'Sullivan, our colleague and my most recent past law
24 clerk, was killed in an automobile accident on the Beltway
25 at Route 29 in Montgomery County.

1 Lorraine was a 1986 graduate of Rutgers
2 University and a 1991 graduate of the Dayton School of Law.
3 She was admitted to practice in 1991, and had been 4 appointed by our State's Attorney Mr. Alexander Williams on 5 July 20th, 1992, to be an Assistant State's Attorney for 6 this County. She had spent the preceding year as my law 7 clerk.

8 For those of you who were fortunate enough to 9 know Lorraine, there are no words necessary. For those of 10 you who did not know her, words and my limited ability are 11 not sufficient to describe her to you. Suffice it to say, 12 that not only has our profession been deprived of a 13 potentially great trial advocate, all of your lives are now
14 diminished by the loss of this truly good woman. We hurt 15 for her absence, but we are grateful for having known her, 16 if only for and all too brief period.

17 Present here today to join the Members of our Bar
18 Association and Memorial listing Lorraine, are her father 19 and stepmother, Joseph Vallario, Jr., and his wife Lisa who 20 were the surrogate parents of Lorraine here in Prince 21 George's County, and of course myself, and most everyone in 22 this room knows their son, Joseph F. Vallario, III.
23 Lorraine's intended at her passing, also my administrative 24 aide, Nancy Bell and Marge Burliss, who along with myself, 25 considered Lorraine family.

1 Judge McCullough, I ask that and I move that 2 these words and the words of all of the preceding 3 memorializations be spread upon the minutes of this Court.

4 JUDGE McCULLOUGH: President Lewis, Chairman of 5 the Memorial Committee and Mr. DePaul, the Judges of this 6 bench are very grateful to you and the Bar Association and 7 to the other Members of the Committee of the Memorial for 8 presentation of these memorials today. It is a very fine
9 tradition that the Court has maintained in Prince George's 10 County, and that we pause from the usual adversary matters
11 taking place in the courtroom to honor our departed 12 brothers and sisters, and to pay tribute to their memories.

13 So the Court and many of whose members have 14 enjoyed a very pleasant and warm relationship with those 15 who have been memorialized today, will direct that the 16 memorials presented will be spread upon the permanent 17 records of the Court, and that a copy will be sent to the 18 families of those colleagues we are honoring today.

19 Mr. Bailiff, in honor of our departed brothers 20 and sisters, you may now announce adjournment of this 21 Court.

22

23

24

25